

Sharon Ronen Seminar

2009 WUSV World Champion – The First Woman to Win!

Atlanta, GA February 12-14, 2010

Obedience & Protection - 1st Seminar in the United States

Although you may have never heard of Sharon until this year, she has a tremendous amount of experience ranging from wild animal behavior, pet and sport training, military background, and police work.

- 1st Woman and 1st Israeli to win the WUSV
- A Bachelors degree in Biology
- A Masters degree in Zoology, Animal Behavior
- 1997 until 2009 - K-9 Guide for the police. She was also responsible for the police puppy project. These puppies became operational attack dogs at the highest level.
- Israeli military in K-9 unit named “Oketz.” She was a developer of new projects, in charge of the puppy project, and established the S.A.R. program in this unit. She was the first woman K9 handler in this unit and served there for 2 years.
- Participated in Schutzhund since 1986
- She currently teaches courses and lectures to K9 handlers; police handlers, military handlers, and civilian handlers.
- This month, she has returned to the university to conduct animal behavior research with different animals.
- A wife and mother of a four year old daughter
- Sharon pays close attention to the animals she trains, understands what she sees and why the animal is behaving in a certain way, and has a unique ability to think about creative solutions for each animal and situation.

This seminar is a must see for women; men who coach women; and helpers who work with women. See how Sharon deals with control issues, starts a young dog in protection and exercises she does when she has no helper!
